

TEAM BUILDING BELOW ZERO

The most exciting Corporate Teambuilding program in recent years!

Treat your organization to an exhilarating teambuilding experience below zero degrees. Simulating a harsh arctic environment, teams will live the adventure of accomplishing various tasks in the snow, while under freezing temperatures and darkness as the lights go down.

Customized team building programs

We offer a customized team building programme for your corporation. We help companies strengthen their Vision, Mission & Value statements, reinforcing corporate values. We offer a unique personal profiling tool to help participants better appreciate differences in personalities and learn to work with people who are different from themselves.

Our highly experienced team of trainers and facilitators will ensure that your customized program will be both fun and will meet your program objectives.

Team Building Below Zero

Our expert trainers know the meaning of teambuilding. Team Activities do not equal to Teambuilding. There are psychological, social and emotional aspects of team building.

Participants will also be having warm room activities, learning points and take aways discussions and debriefs after each adventure scenario.

We will ensure the program objectives are met.
